May Ellis Olson, Pansy Noble Honored With 'Sweetest Person' Trophies

Four judges carefully went over about 40 sincere letters nominating beloved friends and associates early Monday and decided the rules must include a "Sweetest Person" on the basis of community-wide activities and one who is sweet in his or her own neighborhood.

After thoughtful elimination and taking all facets into consideration they decided the 77 persons who had nominated May Ellis Olson had placed her first in the community-wide category and Mrs. Pansy Noble, who is in her 70's and was nominated by one person, in the "neighborhood" category. Trophies were awarded at a Chamber dinner last night.

Because the contest is almost sure to become an annual tradition in Albany, the two categories were considered a must by the judges who felt that if nothing else has been accomplished, scores of citizens in Albany have sat down and written nice things about their neighbors—an accomplishment in itself. To carry the "sweet" aspect of the contest a step further, Chamber President Joe Dagna is sending each of the nominees the statements written about them.

"Too often we wait until it is too late to tell people how much we think about them," Dagna said. "In receiving these wonderful messages, each person will, in effect, be able to read his or her obituary before it is too late to do him any good."

Dagna said he is delighted with the way the contest has been received in Albany.

Nominees.
Those nominated as "Sweetest Person in Albany" include May Ellis Olson, Mrs. Maggi Young, Mrs. Walt Corvello, Tony Sciacero, Bess Lawrence, Dr. Robert

Council Public Hearing On Convalescent Home Set For 8 p.m. Monday, Oct. 24

Albany City Council Monday night set 8 p.m. Monday, Oct. 24, as the time of a public hearing concerning the application of Arthur J. Pagliaro and Marylin Hilly for a use permit to construct a $900,000 convalescent hospital at 431-435 San Pablo Ave., unanimously denied by the Planning and Zoning commission Sept. 27.

In a letter to Council, the men said the use is in accordance with the ordinance, there is a great need for long term care for bed patients, there will be enough parking and that it will be a tax-paying commercial enterprise, as opposed to the Orientation Center for the Blind, which received official approval and does not pay taxes.

A second public hearing, concerning appeal from a denial by the Planning and Zoning, was set for Oct. 31 on a request of Carol L. Wulff, 914 Peralta, for a home occupation permit.

Mayor Richard O. Clark was authorized to proclaim next week as "Sweetest Week" in Albany. Chamber of Commerce Manager Neil Clarity said 177 persons had participated in nominations for "Sweetest Person." 15 Miss Flame candidates would be involved in a shop-at-home promotion to "make someone happy" next week, and that nearly 50 merchants are participating in the promotion.

A proposed proclamation designating Oct. 9-15 as "Fire Safety Week" was denied because it urged purchase of a particular type of fire.

A letter from Morton Berns inviting Council to "Back to School Night" at Albany High school Oct. 13 was filed with Councilmen agreeing they would try to attend.

James B. Turner, Administrative Officer, was authorized to complete an application and budget proposal for 1966-67 street (Continued on Page 3)

Council Unanimously Endorses School Tax

Albany City Council went on record Monday night unanimously endorsing Measure A on the Nov. 8 ballot, which calls for a 75-cent school tax increase.

The subject was brought up by Mayor Richard Clark. Councilman Joe Carlevaro made the motion, which was seconded by Councilman Joe Egenberger. Councilmen George Hein and Lewis Howell joined the others in making the vote unanimous.

Carlevaro said he hoped "fear tactics" would not be used in the pre-election campaign. Clark said funds are needed to meet demands by the state and competition from other school districts. He praised the Board of Education, adding, "I hope the tax increase passes so they can meet the requirements."

SWEET - AND SHY - Mrs. Pansy Noble, who was selected as one of the two "Sweetest Persons" in Albany, didn't appear at the Chamber of Commerce dinner last night and you won't see her picture in the paper. She takes her business of doing good things seriously, does not give a hoot about getting credit and only hopes her health will allow her to continue doing the things she sees need doing. She sounds like a remarkable person and we hope to meet her some day soon.

THE FOLLOWING item is printed in its entirety from the Police bulletin: Subject arrested for drunk after staggering across San Pablo Avenue in the face of oncoming traffic. He staggered around the City Hall and finally wandered into the Police Department, where he was promptly arrested and placed in a cell.

BETTER LOOK A LITTLE beginning Monday, Oct. 10. That's the day Albany will for the first time have an employee dedicated to the proposition that overparking calls for tickets. City Treasurer Marietta Ferreira and Chief of Police Ralph Jensen have jointly announced the appointment of Jacquelyn R. Presley as parking enforcement representative. She was selected from a field of about 200 applicants.

ALBERTO BPW'S Hat Show, we hear, was a tremendous success with many beautiful hats at reasonable prices.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB'S Garden Party Sunday at Dorothy Jaeger's home was undampened by the drizzle. About 60 attended and everyone seemed to have a great time. At least there was plenty of FOOD . . . yum!

THE RECEPTION for Ray Norton, candidate for 17th assembly district, attracted about 200 people to the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Baum last Friday night. It was supposed to end at 8:30, but lots of people stayed MUCH later, than that. Would you believe 2 a.m.?

ALTHOUGH THE ALBANY Fire Department hopes you shop in Albany all year through, they are stressing, because there seems to be a misunderstanding, that only sales slips for the period of Oct. 9 through 15 will count as votes in the Little Miss Flame contest.

'SALUTE TO ARTS' THIS WEEKEND IN KENSINGTON

"A Salute to the Arts" will be the theme of the annual Kensington Community Council parade and open house to be held next Sunday afternoon, Oct. 9, in conjunction with the Kensington Community Council Fund Drive now in progress.

The parade and open house will focus on the work of Kensington artists in the fields of painting, ceramics, pottery, lapidary work, sculpture, and photography, according to Sandy Abraham, Open House chairman.

Paul Armstrong of Kensington Lions club, which is sponsoring the parade, has announced that the parade will start at 1:30 p.m. at Arlington and Amherst avenues, and will proceed along the east side of Arlington Avenue to the Kensington Youth Hut.

The Open House, starting at 2 p.m., will feature the Art Show. There will be exhibits in the Kensington Library parking area, the Kensington Youth Hut, and in the new amphitheater on the east side of the Youth Hut.

Entertainment will include a magic show for children to be presented by Robert Brown, Bob Lindquist's Dixieland Band, and the Albany-El Cerrito Chapter, Sweet Adelines.

Sweet Adelines will present two quartettes, The Footnotes and The Fortissimos. The Footnotes include Marie Magors, tenor; Mary Dewey, lead; Clara Chestnutt, baritone; and Mary Scott, bass. Members of The Fortissimos are Deanna Baker, tenor; Judy Parker, lead; Marian Caruso, baritone; and Yumi Nakajoni, bass.

During the afternoon, barbecued hamburgers and hot dogs will be served by members of Kensington PTA under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lucien LeCam. Other refreshments will be served by Kensington Dads Club, Robert Holtermann, chairman; Mrs. Carl Day and Mrs. Warren Grubb. Vendors will be Charles Carver and Edwin Laplace.

The purpose of the parade and open house is to emphasize the need for contributions from all residents of Kensington to the annual Kensington Community Council Fund Drive.

Mrs. Edward Hubbard, fund drive chairman, said that the $7,000 goal must be reached if the development of the Youth Hut hillside for park and recreation use is to be continued, and if the year round Community Council recreation program and The Outlook information service are to be maintained.

Mrs. Hubbard also pointed out that the Community Council has spearheaded class programs devoted to the arts in Kensington, including instrumental music classes for Kensington school pupils, and the year round Youth Hut courses in creative dance, ballet, stichery, painting, ceramics, and guitar.

She added that fund drive contribution envelopes will be available at the Open House, and contributions may be mailed to the Kensington Recreation office, 1 Windsor Avenue.

City of San Pablo To Dedicate Plaza

An audience in excess of 3,000 people is expected to attend the dedication of San Pablo's Kennedy Plaza at 11 the morning of Oct. 8. The Honorable Edmund G. Brown will formally dedicate the Plaza which reflects San Pablo's early Spanish heritage with adobe brick walls, patios, tile roofs, fountains, reflection pools, and electronic carillon bell system all clustered together aesthetically in a creekside setting.

Originally conceived in 1964, the Plaza plays a major role in the city's total plan for civic beautification which represents citizen support through countless small contributions as well as matching City and Federal beautification funds. Kennedy Plaza has become the focal point for an emerging major commercial center and represents this small community's positive efforts to improve its image.

Following his address, the Governor will push a gold button which will activate the carillon system. The Governor's action will instantly start a bell concert which will continue for a half hour while refreshments are served and tours conducted through the project.

Governor Brown will be joined by Congressman Jerome Waldie and many other dignitaries at this significant event.

Would you purchase a car or house or any other item of importance, sight unseen? Would you risk your money on something which may not measure up to the standards you've come to expect? Obviously, you wouldn't. So more than you'd select a funeral director, someone whose job it is to provide a fitting funeral for a beloved family member, without first knowing that everything provided will be equal to your accustomed standards.

We welcome your inspection, because we're confident that your findings will point to this fact: Ellis-Olson Mortuary exceeds even the highest expectations.

Boys Town Choir In Oakland Saturday, Oct. 8

Music enthusiasts are in for a new experience Saturday evening, Oct. 8, at 8:15 p.m. when the Father Flanagan Boys Town choir comes to Aahmes Shrine Auditorium, 3291 School Street, Oakland, on its 21st national concert tour. This unique artistic group is composed of formerly homeless boys who now are citizens of Father Flanagan's Boys Town, Boys Town, Neb.

Under the able direction of the Very Rev. Msgr. Francis P. Schmitt, the choir boys, ranging in age from 11 to 18, project their artistry in programs varied to include the glorious polyphony of the 16th Century composers, the lilting Viennese waltzes, and the infectiousness of folk songs throughout the world.

The Boys Town choir, to be heard in Oakland under the auspices of Father Walter O'Brien, Council 3518, Knights of Columbus, San Lorenzo, is one of three choirs at Boys Town. More than 200 of the 900 Boys Town citizens participate in the vocal music program.

Critics the country over have called the Boys Town choir "second to none and superior to most."

Tickets for this concert are $2.50 per person. Box offices are at Breuners-Oakland and Montgomery Ward stores in San Leandro, Fremont, Pleasant Hill and Livermore.

It's a simple matter of statistics that night driving is more hazardous than daytime driving — especially on unfamiliar roads encountered by drivers during the holiday weekends, according to Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies.

DON'T LET U.S. DIE BY SUICIDE--PATRICK

Building a hard-hitting speech on Abraham Lincoln's quote, "The only way America can die is by suicide," William Penn Patrick, former Republican candidate for governor, was roundly applauded at an Albany Republican Assembly dinner at Cornell School Wednesday night.

Speaking to a sell-out audience of 250, Patrick urged investigation of candidates to determine if, despite party label, they believe as the voter does. He cited as an example Senator Thomas Kuchel, a Republican, who, he said, has a voting record 80 per cent on the Democratic side.

"You and I are the creators of the goods and wealth of our society and we are being robbed by taxes," he said. "Our irresponsible politicians are taking our money and using it against us."

He said the office of Economic Opportunity gave $267,000 to Cesar Chavez, Delano farm labor leader who trained six years under Sol Alinsky. The money is to be used to "train community organizers," Lewis Lomax of Los Angeles, he pointed out, received $300,000 of War on Poverty money to take 4,500 Negro children to swimming pools of movie stars, on a luau and for yacht trips.

The speaker said a Democratic San Francisco Supervisor had told him that poverty program funds are being used in San Francisco to organize block by block poverty people and welfare people to stand up as a political force against the city.

"Every major city is being organized this way so you and I, who are paying the bills, can have our throats cut," Patrick said.

He said there are more jobs than people available to fill them because those who might work are on unemployment and welfare.

"This has been planned," he charged. "It's the only way our country can be broken."

Patrick concluded by urging his audience to investigate Proposition 1-A on the Nov. 8 ballot, which he opposes for many reasons.

He was given a standing ovation at the end of his talk.

The dinner, which represented more Republican enthusiasm than has been displayed in Albany in some years, attracted several Republican candidates.

Among those introduced were Colin Kelly, 11th Senatorial District; Lewis F. Sherman, 8th Senatorial District; Ray Norton, 17th Assembly District; Malcolm Champlin, 7th Congressional District, and Cyril Stevenson, 2nd District State Board of Equalization.

V. M. Chester, Assembly president, was master of ceremonies. Jerome Blank introduced special guests.

PARENT NURSERY PUPPET SHOW THIS SATURDAY

There's still time to get tickets for Dale Andersen's puppet show at the Albany Community Center gym.

"The Witch's Cat" will be presented Oct. 8 as the first of a three-part program sponsored by the Albany Parent Nursery to raise funds for new equipment for the school.

A puppeteer for over nine years, Mrs. Andersen is interested in folklore and fairy tales, which she develops into her own scripts. She works with hand puppets made of cloth and other materials. Her collection numbers over 100, and she is constantly adding to it.

The second performer, to appear Nov. 5, will be "Poogie Poogie" of El Cerrito Plaza fame. A well-known personality around the Bay Area, this magician will bring tricks that are certain to astonish his audience and draw big applause.

Saturday, Dec. 3, The Bremmentown Puppeteers will perform "Jack and the Beanstalk" and a slightly different version of "Hansel and Gretel." The Bremmentown Puppeteers are a family troupe, the Siculars, who have been putting on shows for youngsters for 12 years. Their scripts are largely taken from classical fairy tales and folk tales. On hand to entertain with them in December will be the International children's puppet chorus.

All three programs, each a month apart, will be held in the Albany Community Center gym, and in an effort to keep the audience small, there will be two performances on each day, one at 9:30 a.m. and the other at 11 a.m. The donation will be $1.25, and this includes admission to all three shows. Tickets may be obtained from any parent whose child attends the nursery school, or interested persons are invited to call Deane Key at 526-8548 or Adrienne Allison at 524-7942. There will be no tickets available at the performances.

A Series

About Measure A

by Anita Tronoff
Parents For Action

"The very life of the Albany schools may be at stake here." These were the opening remarks of Charles Pinkham, President of the Board of Education, Albany Unified School District, as he spoke to the concerned citizens assembled in the Cornell cafeteria Tuesday, Sept. 27.

Pinkham continued, "Although it was close, the 50 cents tax increase failed. Because of this, drastic budget-cutting became necessary. Cutbacks included discontinuance of the elementary summer school, and the splendid after-school recreation program which cost approximately $5,000.

"The reasons for this (1) to give us some kind of respectable reserve in case of emergency and (2) to give us the position to make some adjustment in salary schedules. For the first time in 11 and a half years we have found ourselves in the position of losing teachers for MONEY REASONS alone. We are not yet in a position to compete with the surrounding school districts.

"The Board of Education has set the date of Nov. 8 for another election. We ask for a 75 cent tax increase. The reason being that with the success of the passage of the Nov. 8 tax measure this money would not be available to us until July 1, 1967. It will not be of use during the current school year; therefore, with the time lapse and the inflationary spiral continuing, the school district would need more money. To be realistic, we have to ask for the increased amount.

"Unfortunately, the only source of funds that we have at the moment is to go to the voters of Albany and ask them this question, 'Do you want to continue this quality educational program? If so, are you willing to pay the bill?' If not, your school board would be faced with what would amount to the dismemberment of a very fine school system. It also comes to a choice as to whether or not we (meaning you voters and parents) wish to maintain our freedom as an entity, an INDEPENDENT school district, small enough to have personal contact without going through red tape to get to people you want to see, still large enough to do an efficient and worthwhile job in teaching your children."

Posters advocating "Yes on A, Albany Schools" are going up in windows all over the city. Precinct workers will be contacting you, ready to answer your questions. Measure "A" will cost the average homeowner less than 5 1/2 cents per day to restore and maintain a quality program.

The purpose of this series of articles will be to bring home to you, the parents and voters of Albany, all of the hard, blunt facts. It has been said, "We have no problems in Albany, we are a tranquil island. . . ." Your reporter wishes you to know that if you, the voters and parents of Albany, do not support your school board's request, YOUR ISLAND WILL SINK.

Rest is an all important factor in safe driving, according to Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies, which suggests a good night's sleep before leaving on a trip. If experienced drivers are unable to rotate on two-hour cycles behind the wheel, "40 winks" at service stations may prevent an accident.

matter how safe the investment appears. This is money you want to be able to count on at all times and under all conditions. And when you want your money that safe and that available—you want it in the bank.

DR. RICHARD GLEASON MARIN PTA SPEAKER

Marin PTA invites all parents and teachers to attend the Oct. 11 meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The featured speaker of the evening will be Dr. Richard L. Gleason. In the spring of 1965 and since his death, Mrs. Darold Acorn, program chairman, urges all interested people to make this meeting a "must."

An indication of the quality of Dr. Gleason's presentation is reflected in the fact that his name was suggested as a speaker by several people who had attended his presentation in the past, and who especially requested to be asked again to attend even though they are no longer directly involved in Marin PTA activities.

Be sure to avail yourself of a stimulating and informative evening.

The right foot should be rested lightly on the brake when approaching "blind" corners or intersections, Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies says.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

The monthly schedule for September was routine with two memorable exemptions.

At Tuesday, Sept. 27, Elmer Bouchet showed slides he took while he and his wife, Myra, were on a tour of Alaska. These included, among other things, the Liongate Bridge, old cabin home of Jack Dalton (still being used as a residence), many beautiful flower gardens, giant Indian totem poles, beautiful paved roads. They showed the giant seismographs which were rendered useless during devastating earthquakes at Anchorage and some pictures showing changes in the earth's surface. He said gas costs 69 cents a gallon in Alaska.

The long-anticipated Zoo-B-Que at Knowland State Park was enjoyed by more than 50 eager Seniors who braved intense heat to make the bus trip. The barbecue was held in a cool, shady spot and was catered by Jim Miraglias of San Leandro. It consisted of barbecued hamburgers on buns, tossed salad, barbecued beans, apple pie and coffee. Miraglias has a reputation as a good caterer. He also has a restaurant, managed by his wife, in San Leandro as well as a banquet hall in Alameda. The group wandered around the zoo, including the

Baby Zoo.

I have a word of warning for women—do not get so interested in the baby elephant that you forget the baby goat or you may have to go home in a mini-skirt. I discovered baby goats love nylon dresses.

Political Roundup

NORTON

Ray Norton, Republican candidate for 17th District Assemblyman, opened his campaign headquarters at 1811 Alcatraz Avenue, Berkeley, and spelled out a seven-point "Program for Action" for his district.

"Quality is the key word," Norton said, "for it is insistence on quality in jobs, housing, recreation, health, tax reform, education and business which will increase the prosperity of the citizens of the 17th District."

Norton, a former U.S. Olympic track star, believes that "the Brown administration has taken things for granted too long."

MEDICARE

(A Series)

by Gerald O. Dewhurst

The medical insurance program is financed by monthly premiums paid by those who sign up for this protection and by matching payments from general revenues of the Federal Government. The monthly premium rate (and the matching government payment) will be $3 for each person enrolled, at least until 1968.

The law requires that the premium rates be examined every two years starting in 1967. If this examination shows that the premium rate, including the government share, is not enough to cover the cost of the program for the next two years, the rate may be changed. The government will continue to pay half the cost.

How the Premiums are Paid
The $3 premium will be deducted from your monthly checks if you receive social security, railroad retirement, or civil service benefits, beginning with the check you receive at the beginning of the month your medical insurance protection begins.

If you are not receiving any of the above benefits, you will pay the premiums directly to the Social Security Administration.

If you are eligible for social security benefits but are not getting monthly checks (for example, because of high earnings from work), you will receive a premium due notice from Social Security.

If you are not eligible for social security, railroad retirement, or civil service benefits, you will receive a premium due notice for $9 every three months from the Social Security Administration.

If you prefer, you can arrange through the social security office to pay your premiums in monthly installments of $3 each. Premiums may also be paid in advance. You may pay for up to one year simply by increasing the amount of your payment by multiples of $3 for each additional month.

A punchcard and return address envelope for you to use in sending in the payment will be enclosed with the premium notice. Be sure to (1) send in your payments promptly; (2) pay by personal check or money order instead of sending cash; and (3) return the punchcard with your payment. If you fail to send in your premium payments, your medical insurance coverage will be terminated, after reasonable notice.

Residents of Berkeley-Albany who receive some forms of State assistance payments will have their medical insurance premiums paid by the local Social Service Department. If you receive State aid and still receive a premium due notice, let both your Social Security office and your caseworker know.

Probably the hardest parts of Medicare for many people to understand are the deductible amounts. These will be discussed in the next article.

Mrs. Cannon Honored By Rebekahs

Mrs. Marie Cannon, president of the Rebekah Assembly of California, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was guest of honor at a dinner sponsored by officers of Berkeley Rebekah Lodge 262 at the Claremont Hotel Sept. 28.

At 8 p.m. she paid the lodge an official visit at the Berkeley Odd Fellows' Temple, escorted by her conductor, Mrs. Phyllis Irving. Noble Grand Jessie Wyles presided over the meeting.

Vice Grand Dorothea Meserbrink made the speech of welcome to the guests.

Other distinguished officers included Past Presidents Pearl Nelbor and Mame R. Reddick of the Association of Ladies Auxiliaries, Patriarchs Militant; District Deputy President Emma Oliver of District 70; and District Deputy Grand Master, Dr. Claude A. Porter of District 64. Mrs. Nedra Chandler acted as chairman for the evening.

The president delivered the address of the evening, stressing the importance of enlisting new members to maintain the "stairway of members" in the local lodges.

The Noble Grand presented her a gift on behalf of the lodge, which was accepted with a gracious response.

After the meeting everyone went to the banquet hall for light refreshments, where the tables were beautifully decorated with small carts filled with a variety of flowers.

on OCTOBER 15th

FIFTEEN LITTLE GIRLS WILL COMPETE FOR 'LITTLE MISS FLAME'

Fifteen attractive Albany girls, ages five through eight, have been nominated for the "Little Miss Flame" contest being sponsored by Albany Fire Department during "Sweetest Week" Oct. 9-15.

The idea is to vote for your favorite child during that special week by shopping at participating Albany businesses. When you receive a receipt for your purchase, write the NUMBER of your choice on the back of the receipt and drop it in a box reserved for that purpose.

At the end of the week (and only tags dated between Oct. 9 and 15 will qualify as votes), members of the Fire Department will collect the boxes, total the purchases made in the name of each candidate and announce the girl responsible for top total of purchases. She will be "Little Miss Flame" and will reign as the mascot of the Fire Department for one year—until the next "Miss Flame" is selected during Fire Prevention Week in 1967.

Candidates

"Little Miss Flame" candidates, who have been numbered in order of nominations received, include Laurie Hiscoc, seven, 917 Ordway, No. 1; Linda Joyce Williams, six, 860 Solano, No. 2; Debbie Lynn Clayton, five, 1107 Kains, No. 3; Lisa Davis, six, 536 Stannage, No. 4; Donna Hirschberg, eight, 982 Tulare, No. 5; Kelly Brom, six, 1014 Masonic, No. 6; Suzanne Gossman, six, 1111 Dartmouth, No. 7; Susan Larimer, eight, 729 Evelyn, No. 8; Valerie Mattioda, eight, 609 Spokane, No. 9; Debra Rosand, eight, 1013 Talbot, No. 10; Mae

Pony Ride Will Remain in Tilden Park

Tilden Park's popular pony ride will remain in Tilden Park—but at a different location, as indicated by action of the East Bay Regional Park District Board of Directors.

A petition signed by more than 550 East Bay residents urged that the famed ride not be moved to the new Briones Regional Park and that a suitable site in the vicinity of the existing pony ride be found. In presenting the petition to the Board of Directors, Mrs. Harry Bier, 1877 Yosemite Road, Berkeley, said that the signers represented some 1,000 children—all, presumably, pony riders.

Harold Loving, present operator of the pony ride, said that he had received many phone calls in favor of a Tilden location, and stated he felt that an area east of Meadows playground which had been studied by the Park District's staff as a possible re-location site for the ride could be a suitable and satisfactory spot for an up-dated development.

One of the frequently expressed reasons against moving the pony ride to Briones, William Penn Mott, Jr., EBRPD general manager, indicated, was that more children in Contra Costa area had their own horses or ponies—or friends with horses—where as horses and ponies are not easily accessible to youngsters in the Berkeley-Albany-Kensington-El Cerrito area.
